Dedication

To Miss Adeline Wright

To Miss Adeline Wright, whose enthusiastic efforts have been of invaluable aid to the students of BHS.

To Miss Wright, who has helped make a "continuous diary" of the school. She has advised sixteen Comet staffs since 1934. When the school newspaper, The Dial, was born ten years ago, it was Miss Wright who was instrumental in making it possible.

To Miss Wright, we, the class of 1950, gratefully dedicate this Comet.

We start our diary as school begins

Dear Diary,

This is a wonderful idea! We are going to keep a diary!

Here are ninety-two pages waiting for pictures and scribbling and records. We have lots to do, with homework, classes, and extra activities of all kinds; but we promise to put down all the important events that we'll be enjoying this year and to write in our diary as often as we can. We want to make a vivid record of the 1949-1950 year at BHS.

And so, armed with pens, paste, pictures, ideas, and these blank pages, we begin our Comet Diary.

We hurried down Main Street

. . . rushed past the Post Office and arrived at the high school

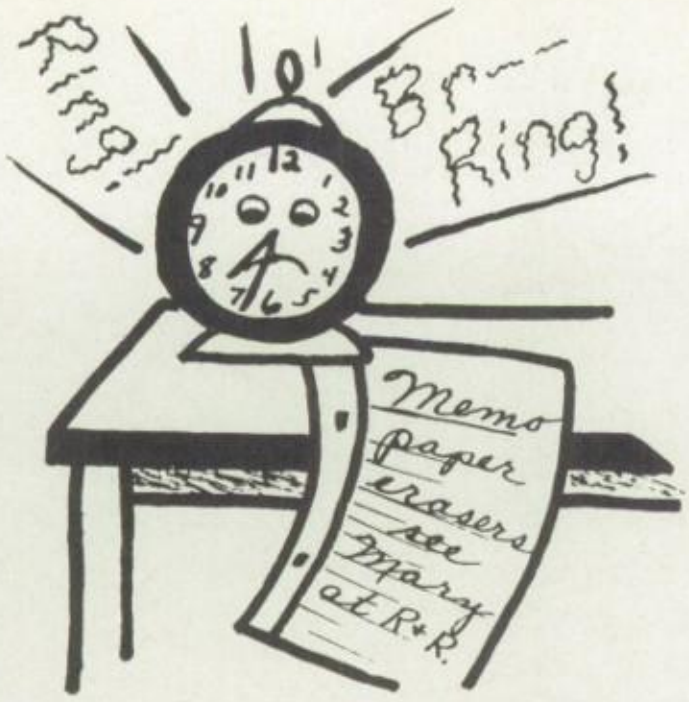
We all started talking at once with our friends whom we haven't seen all summer. After finding our home rooms, we visited each class and received brief assignments.

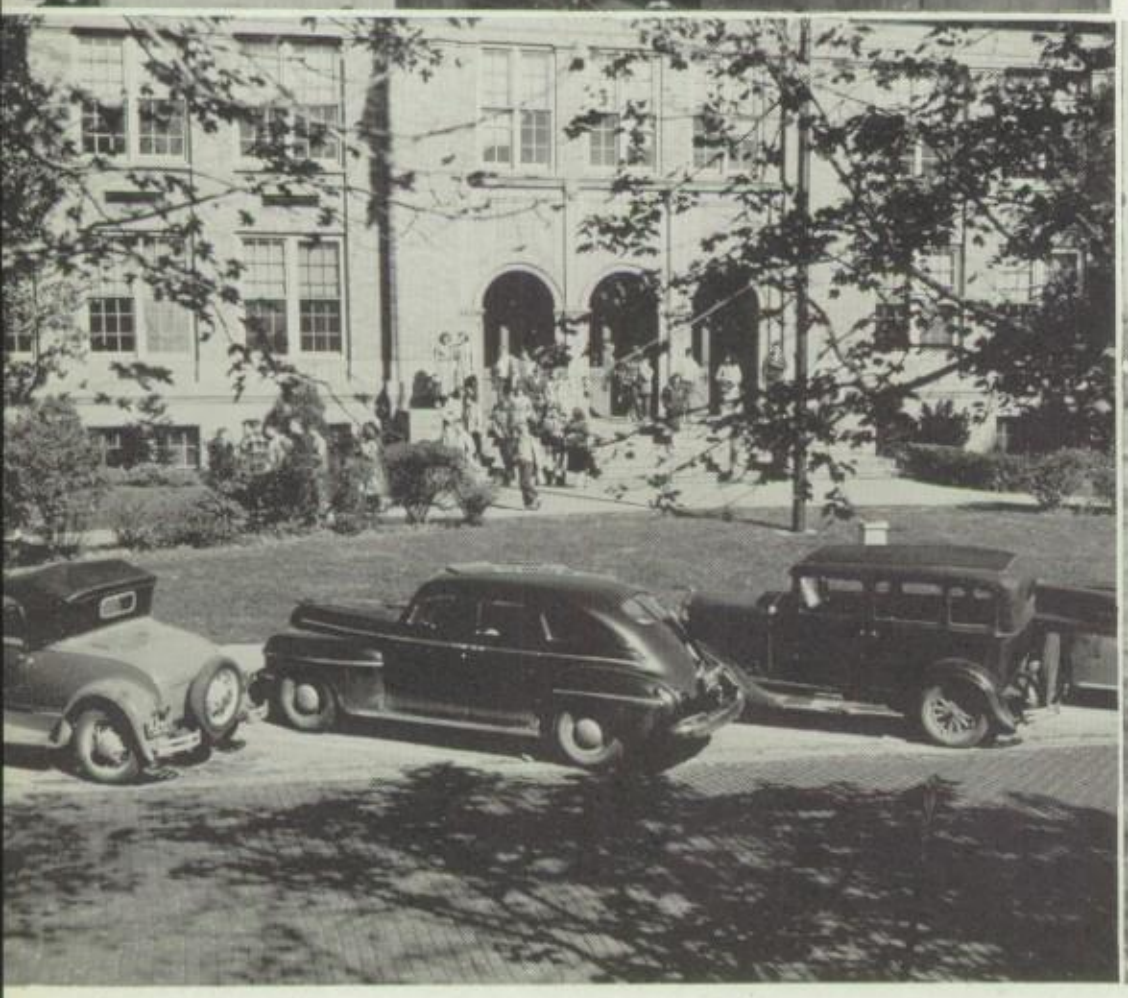
BHS seemed to have a special welcome for us. The hall floors gleamed with fresh coats of wax; some of the classrooms were bright with new coats of paint; and the flawless study hall tables invited us to make good use of them. Such good grooming and care is the reason that strangers are so surprised to hear BHS is twenty years old.

Why, right now, a picture of our school is traveling about the country on the wall of one of the new Nickel Plate passenger coaches.



Sept. 8 Out of ...and ready

At school early today we stopped in the office. The two Virginias were really rushed by the avalanche of students buying pencils, paper, and workbooks. Lots of our friends were sitting on the steps, so we went out to visit with them before class. Cars were lined up in front of the building for a long wait until the noon rush.



bed early ... for classes

Soon the first bell rang and we hurried inside, eager to begin the first full day of school. Mr. Glasgo made his announcements, and it was time for the first class. Some freshmen got lost, and no wonder—the corridors were like Grand Central Station!

Later, in study hall, we realized the first day of school was really in progress.

Sept. 9 Today we met...

PRINCIPAL

E. S. Glasgo

When we stopped in the Superintendent's office this morning we learned that both Mr. Swigart and Mr. Glasgo are graduates of Denison University, and both received their masters degrees at Ohio State University. No wonder they make such a good administrative team!

In the superintendent's office we snapped a picture of Mrs. Virginia Sabo, secretary to Superintendent Swigart, as she worked at the

Then we took a picture in the principal's office. At the desk in the foreground Miss Alice Beiler, Mr. Glasgo's secretary, was checking records. Through the open partition-window, Mr. Glasgo could be seen working on plans for the year.

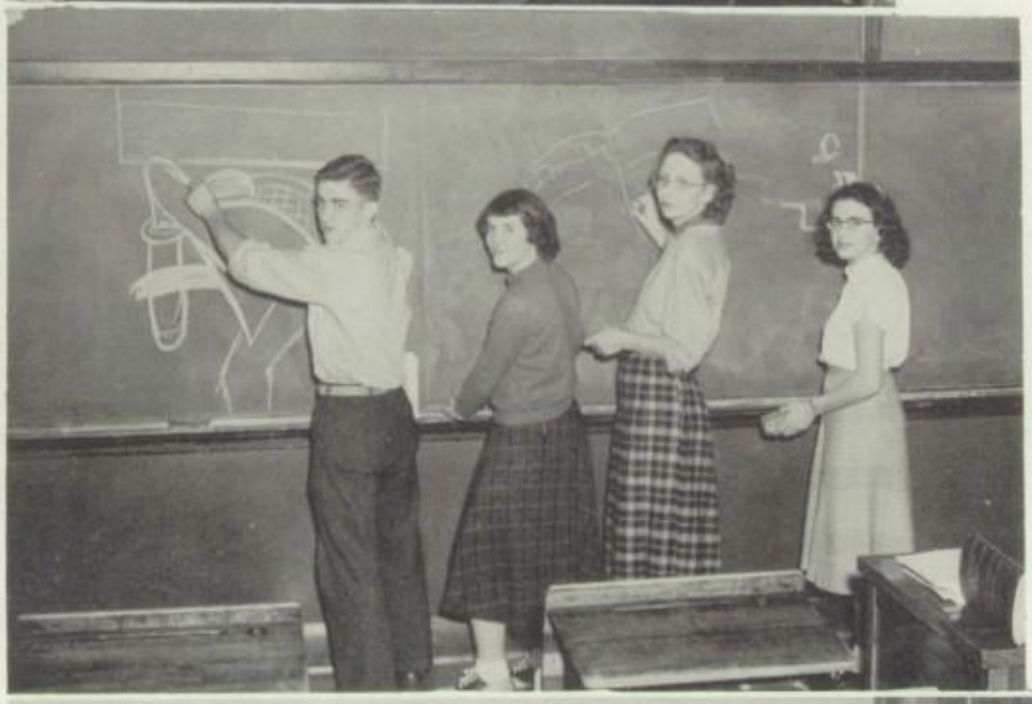
Sept. 20 The Comet Staff begins plans for 1950



Work began today on the 1950 Comet. It's an hónor to be chosen for the annual staff and everyone is eager to make the book an extra special one. The diary theme was suggested today, but everyone is busy thinking up more ideas until we vote to choose the one that will work out best. With the art staff drawing sketches and the rest of us writing sample articles, we are getting good ideas.

The first Dial Sept. 21 was issued today

We collected all the "summer news" of classmates for the first issue of the Dial, which was delivered today. It's fun being on a newspaper staff, but it's work, too, with writing, copy-reading, proofreading, arranging the dummy—and the excitement of meeting the deadlines. We plan twelve issues with rotating editors. In that way, a lot of us can use our original ideas.

Memo: Keep all copies.

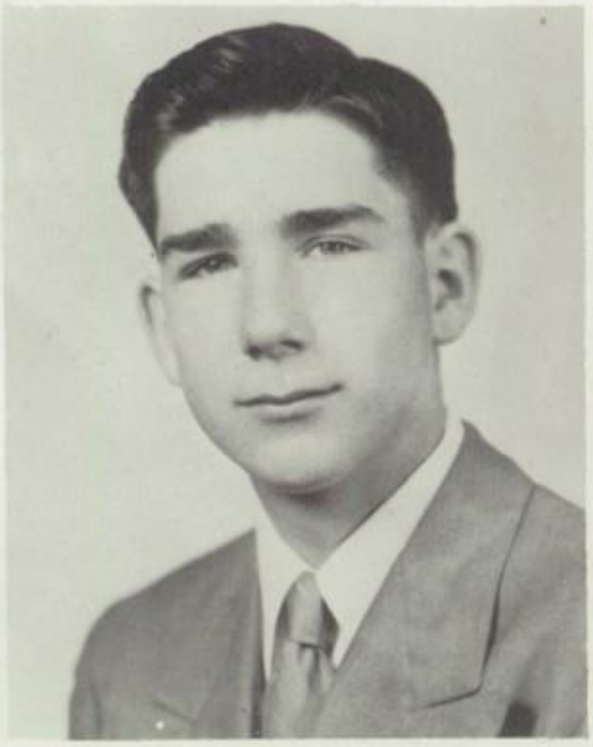
Sept. 27 Student Council began its work



Regular meeting of the Student Council today! Our aim: To help students and teachers co-operate in producing a better high school.

1. Purchase of wire recorder (now making speeches will be fun).
2. Supervision of elections of class officers.
3. Scholarship plaque to keep rivalry among home rooms.
4. Best Homecoming ever!
5. Popcorn stand supervision.
6. Student Council pins.

Come to think of it—we're going to be mighty busy this year if we are going to do all these things! (Meeting every Tuesday).

And one for the Junior High

"Isn't it thrilling!" I heard an enthusiastic Junior High student say. She was talking about the tentative plans being made today by Mr. Krumm and Mr. Rosenthal for the Junior High Music Festival to be held some time in February. It will feature a seventh and an eighth grade chorus and the Junior High band.

Junior High students have been called the sub-debs of B.H.S. because they participate in many high-school activities. Several of their classes are held in B.H.S., and they attend almost all assemblies. Moreover, they have their own column in the Dial, writing the material themselves under the direction of Mrs. Glasgo.

Junior High boys and girls are proud of their winning basketball team and of their own band.

Oct. 21 Homecoming Queen is crowned

Tonight was the most exciting night in school so far! The pretty Homecoming queen was crowned by the football co-captains and reigned throughout the game. What a sight it was when the convertibles rolled to a stop and the queen walked through the arch formed by the batons of the drum majorettes! This was a red-letter day for my Diary.

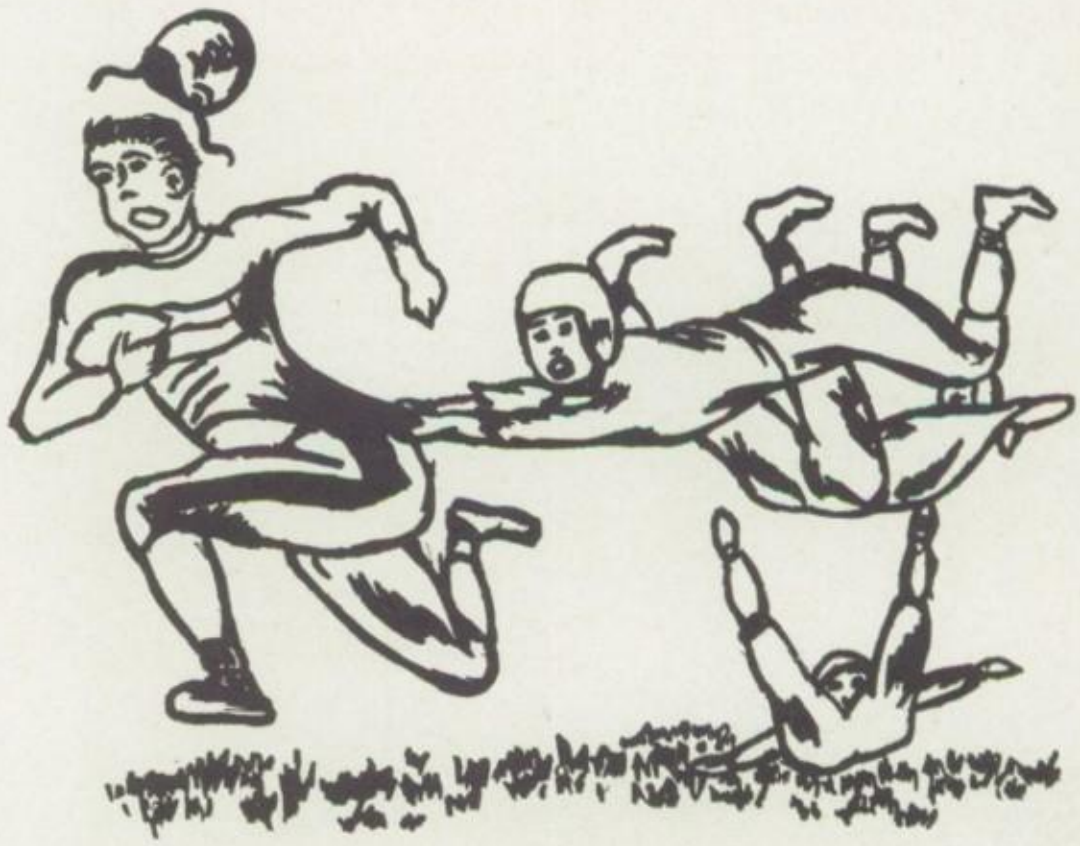
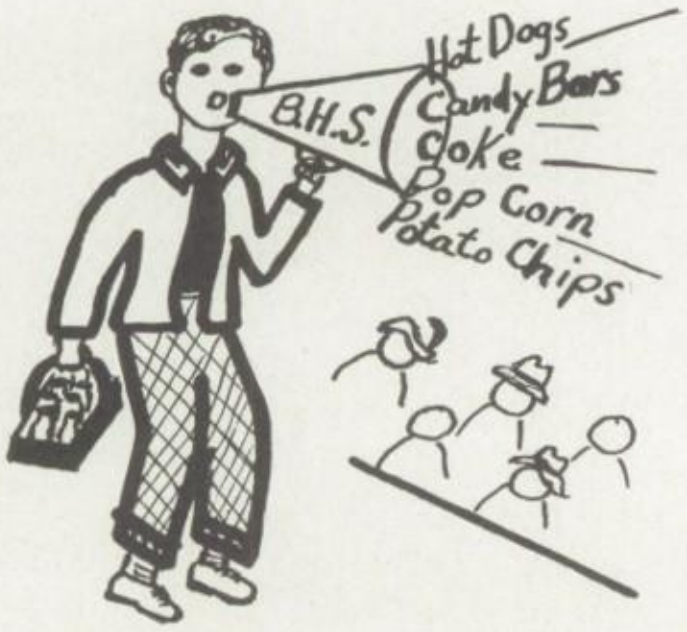
November



Nov. 8 Senior Stand is big business



When we totaled up our records today, we found our Senior Stand was big business this year. It certainly was cold some nights when Jane and I worked at the stand, but the crisp air made our customers crowd up to our shop to buy hot dogs, served piping hot from army containers recently bought by the school. Our profits (we hope, about $300) will go to the Comet fund. Miss Cooper, stand adviser, estimated that we have sold over 2,800 wieners and 101 cases of coke, besides ice cream bars, potato chips, candied apples, and candy bars by the dozens.

Willa Hogarth has been general chairman. Working with her were the following: Dorothy Branco, Ruth Briehl, Lucia Brown, Barbara Bores, Ann Crotcher, Arlene Doane, Ruth Ferres, Janet Henney, Rita Herman, Evelyn Hertzer, Jean Kegerreis, Caroline Loparo, Bonnie Lou MacManus, Jim Meacham, Phyllis Meyer, Gladys Moyer, Sally Ocker, Mary Ann Palmer, Joann Richards, Margaret Schindley, Joe Sherman, Pat Starr, Peggy Thrasher, Opal Teegarden, Jack Werner, Kate Wireman, Joann White, Charles Wright, Virginia Wongler.

Tonight we played our last football game of the year. Bright lights, crisp cold air, shouting crowds, martial band music, and tense crowds, as the teams smashed up and down the field—but although the graduating seniors fought hard to win their last football game for B.H.S., the heavier Port Clinton Redskins were too much for them.

This is a good time to enter a record of the entire football season. Although one win, three ties, and five losses may not seem impressive, team and coaches never lost their fighting spirit, and loyal fans kept attendance at the games high.

Nov. 11 More about football

SENIOR LETTERMEN

Co-Captain, DON BALDWIN, end. Baldy battled his way through three years of football to become one of the most powerful ends in the league. His all-around ability was recognized when he was selected first-string all-league right end.

Co-Captain, TERRY RUPPERT, full-back. Terry's battering line smashes have been hard on the enemy for the past two years. Coupled with this was his skill as a defensive line-backer.

GUY BERETICH, end. "California" proved an exceptionally fast end, especially on defense. Because of his speed, he was good at making tackles behind the scrimmage line.

BILL CUDNIK, half-back. Bill was a hard worker who played mostly on defense. Time and again, Bill came from his line-backer position to nab a runner behind the line of scrimmage.

BOB DUNN, guard. Always a tough man to handle, "You-All" was especially good on defense. His ability to break through and block punts was recognized by many opposing coaches.

DICK HICKMAN, half-back. Dick, the "brains" of the team, proved himself to be a flashy half-back, often breaking into the open for long gains. Dick also did the punting chores.

MELVIN KOCH, half-back. Mel was one of the hardest driving backs in the league, and his end runs were thrilling to watch. He also was excellent on pass defense.

ARDYN LONG, end. Art was on the receiving end of most of the passes completed this year, often making what seemed to be impossible catches.

SANDY NASONTI, quarterback. Sandy completed spectacular passes many times this year. His ball handling was exceptional, and he did some fine running from the single-wing back formation.

RICHARD RUFFING, guard. "Dopey" overcame a size disadvantage to become a good guard. He often moved out bigger opponents on offense, and his "submarine" was hard to stop on defense.

CLAUDE SPRINGER, tackle. "Rodney" could always be counted on to play a steady game. His most spectacular performance was galloping 40 yards for a touchdown after intercepting a pass in the Willard game.

TED BALL, manager. Unable to participate in football his last year, Ted stayed with the team in a new capacity.

Nov. 11 We review the season

Coach Fenton Wolfe, and his assistants, Joe Ayers and Ed Allen, provided the Redmen with a capable coaching trio. The Bellevue gridiron team scored 96 points as compared to 149 for the opposition. Coach Wolfe's squad placed one man on the first string Northern Ohio League team, while three gridders received honorable mention.

Sam DeBlase and Dick Keeler were chosen as co-captains for the 1950 season.

Sept. 11: Bellevue, 6—Fremont St. Joe, 6

Coming from behind, the Redmen managed to push over a tying touchdown in the last quarter. The boys played a good defensive game but did not produce enough offense when near pay-dirt.

Sept. 23: Upper Sandusky, 20—Bellevue, 8

Jumping off to an early lead, the Upper Sandusky boys were never passed. Our only score in the first half came when Bob Dunn broke through and blocked a punt so that the ball rolled over their goal line. Our other score came in the third quarter when DeBlase went over for a touchdown.

Sept. 30: Bellevue, 6—Crestline, 0

Displaying improved ball handling, the Redmen captured their first league win before 2,000 fans at Crestline. Terry Ruppert was the hero of the game because of his good work in the last quarter. The B.H.S. gridders pushed over in the fourth quarter for their score in the thrilling ball game.

Oct. 7: Willard, 26—Bellevue, 20

A third quarter rally gave Willard the victory after the underdog Redmen had held the lead for almost the whole game.

Oct. 14: Norwalk, 13—Bellevue, 12

Coming from behind in the closing minutes, the Norwalk Truckers rammed over to win a close game. Because the Redmen suffered a number of injuries, they were forced to play a defensive game during the last half.

Oct. 21: Shelby, 28—Bellevue, 12

Long end runs and deceptive line plunges by Shelby spelled defeat for the Bellevue boys, although thy were playing before a large home-coming crowd.

Oct. 27: Bellevue, 13—Galion, 13

Again coming from behind, the fighting Bellevue Redmen team held the Galion Tigers, 13 to 13. Hickman, Koch, Nasonti, and Ruppert sparked the backfield, while "Dutch" Baldwin and Siesel held the line in a rough-and-tumble contest.

Nov. 4: Bellevue, 12—Bucyrus, 12

Not until the third quarter of a thrill-packed contest at Bucyrus was a score made. Each time Bellevue pushed over, Bucyrus did the same, minutes later. The local gridders gained more yards than Bucyrus, but the score board showed a tie.

Nov. 11: Bellevue, 7—Port Clinton, 31

Although they had tried to finish the season on a successful note, the Bellevue Redmen were defeated by the power-laden team from Port Clinton, 31-7. It was the last game for eleven seniors. Hickman made the last BHS touchdown of the season.

If Reserve games have anything to do with it, the Redmen will have a good team next year. They beat Norwalk, 31-20, and edged Fremont St. Joe, 6-0, in two exciting contests. The local JayVees piled up 37 points to the opponents' 26 in the two games.

F. H. A. OFFICERS

Dear Diary,

The Future Homemakers Club prepared the annual supper this evening. Since it was the night of our city election, we served many hungry voters, I'm exhausted! But the food was delicious! Chairmen were Rita Herman, Pat Miller, and Marlene Fryar, with Miss Mouser as adviser.

The Future Homemakers have many plans for the remainder of the year, including a semi-formal dance in the spring and a Mother-Daughter Banquet, May 3.

We are looking forward to our cherry-pie-baking contest. I wonder who will be our queen? Later: Bellevue's pie queen turned out to be Anna Wise, a sophomore. Her pies are yummy!

F. T. A. ASSEMBLY

The minutes of today's meeting of the Zellah Bell Club of Future Teachers of America were packed full of accounts of the activities of the last few weeks and of plans for the future. Everyone is happy over the success of our special assembly, when we formed a panel to explain the needs of a four-mill levy in the support of the Bellevue schools. The people of Bellevue passed it with a good majority on November 8, and we think we helped.

All of us have had the opportunity to observe classes in grade buildings, as well as to assist as student teachers now and then.

We received our membership pins at a recent meeting. Programs for our luncheon meetings include talks by several alumni as well as by members of the present group.

When our sponsors, the members of Delta Kappa Gamma, entertained Future Teachers from neighboring towns, we were happy to assist. Guest speaker was Dr. Virginia Sanderson of Ohio State University.

A LUNCHEON MEETING

Dec. 9 - The Library Club is planning Christmas trim.

. . . Today we Library Club members started our Christmas decorations. The entire club joined in the Christmas spirit. Of course we could not neglect our other duties of mending books, pasting, and doing desk work; but this week, as a result of our labors, the library windows are gaily painted with Santas, bells, and snowmen.

We are eagerly awaiting our Christmas party to be held at Barbara Wilson's home during vacation.

Besides following a weekly work schedule during the school hours, we hold regular meetings.

Oh! I don't believe I have introduced our club. So, Diary, here they are. The background of our pictures shows the attractive book-lined walls of the high school library.

Christmas Plays---Dec. 16

A CORN HUSK DOLL

Two Christmas plays, presented by the speech classes today, brought the Christmas spirit to BHS just before vacation began. In one, a corn husk doll helped a snobbish film actress find happiness, love, and a new outlook on life.

A Corn Husk Doll was played by the following:

Carlotta Camelot .....Joyce McKinney
Dan Gates ,newspaper man.....Bob Raschke
Katie, Carlotta's maid.....Janet Henney
Waldon, Carlotta's butler..Dick Gildenmeister
Jake Roberts, Carlotta's manager..Don Drewes
Student Director .....Loretta Nuby

The orchestra and the prelude choir furnished Christmas music.

A BY-LINE FOR ST. LUKE

A By-line For St. Luke also spread Christmas cheer, as rich but cynical Louisa Hargrave found happiness in sharing with others. The cast was as follows:

Luke Cameron, reporter..... Joe Sherman
Louisa Hargrave, newspaper owner.....
Martha Woodard
Carol Prescott, feature reporter .....
Sharon Brooks
Joe Baron, editor .....Harold Colvin
Myrtle .....Peg Wilhelm
Hettie .....Pat Starr
Student Director .....Ruth Briehl

KING CHUCK AND QUEEN PEG REIGN

FORTUNE-TELLING BOOTH AND FISH POND

"PENNY A PITCH" AND TRY YOUR SKILL— AT THE CARNIVAL

With lots of fun under the "big top," the Y-Teen Carnival this evening carried out the traditions of pink lemonade, flying confetti, and amusing side-shows. Crowds flocked to the fortune-telling booth, the fish pond, the ring toss, and the dart throw. How they went for that homemade fudge! High spot of the evening was the auction when all kinds of things were sold—chances to wear sweaters of some of the boys, shoe shines by Fenton Wolfe, or a cherry pie baked by the 1949 champion. Most important, we counted up big profits after lots of fun!

Last month our club sponsored the annual Christmas Formal at which a king and a queen of Good Will were crowned.

We are now looking forward to our Easter party for the orphans.

And soon we'll be electing new officers who will attend summer camps and bring back new ideas for even finer Y-Teen projects.

ALL'S FAIR ON A HAY RIDE

SWINGING AT THE SWEETHEART SWING

LIGHT FROM THE HI-Y BOYS

After Hi-Y meeting tonight, we got to talking about our year's activities. There was that night in October when we took our girls on a Hi-Y motor hayride . . . Everyone had a good time. (Delicious cider and doughnuts!)

Last Saturday came the Sweetheart Swing where we danced in a red and white Valentine setting to the music of George Frost's band.

The light-bulb-sales campaign should go over the top next spring to earn funds to send Hi-Y officers to camp. Plans are also underway for a Mother-Son Banquet next May, with Mr. Sam Cooper as speaker.

The Hi-Y organization aims to build boys with well-rounded personalities. Regular meetings all year carry out this aim.

Feb. 24 Boys' Intramurals

Champions

Nearly one hundred boys are participating in the exciting intramural games this year.

Each noon the students hurry eagerly back to school to watch the homeroom teams competing in various sports and to cheer favorites on to victory. In the fall, Rooms 117-210 carried away the touch football championship by winning all their games. Then when volleyball season came along, 108 had an undefeated season. In the basketball series which followed, Room 117 again cheered their team on through an undefeated season.

In a post-season basketball tournament, Room 204 came out as victors.

Ping-pong matches and a softball league are planned for later in the spring.

Mr. Ed Allen is in charge of all boys' intramural activities.

"B's", too, for the ladies

We girls have certainly proved that sports aren't just for boys. Almost every girl has taken part in at least one of our five intramural sports. The girls were usually divided into six teams with approximately thirteen members on a team, who played on Tuesdays and Thursdays. In this way we are able to get our 80 points which we must have to be eligible for membership in the Girls' Athletic Association. Fifty-five girls are now in the club and more will be admitted by the end of the year.

As the Comet goes to press, there are many girls close to winning the coveted big "B", which is the reward given after a girl has 250 points.

Mrs. Genevieve Pendleton is in charge of G.A.A. and girls' intramurals.

THE BARBERSHOP FOUR

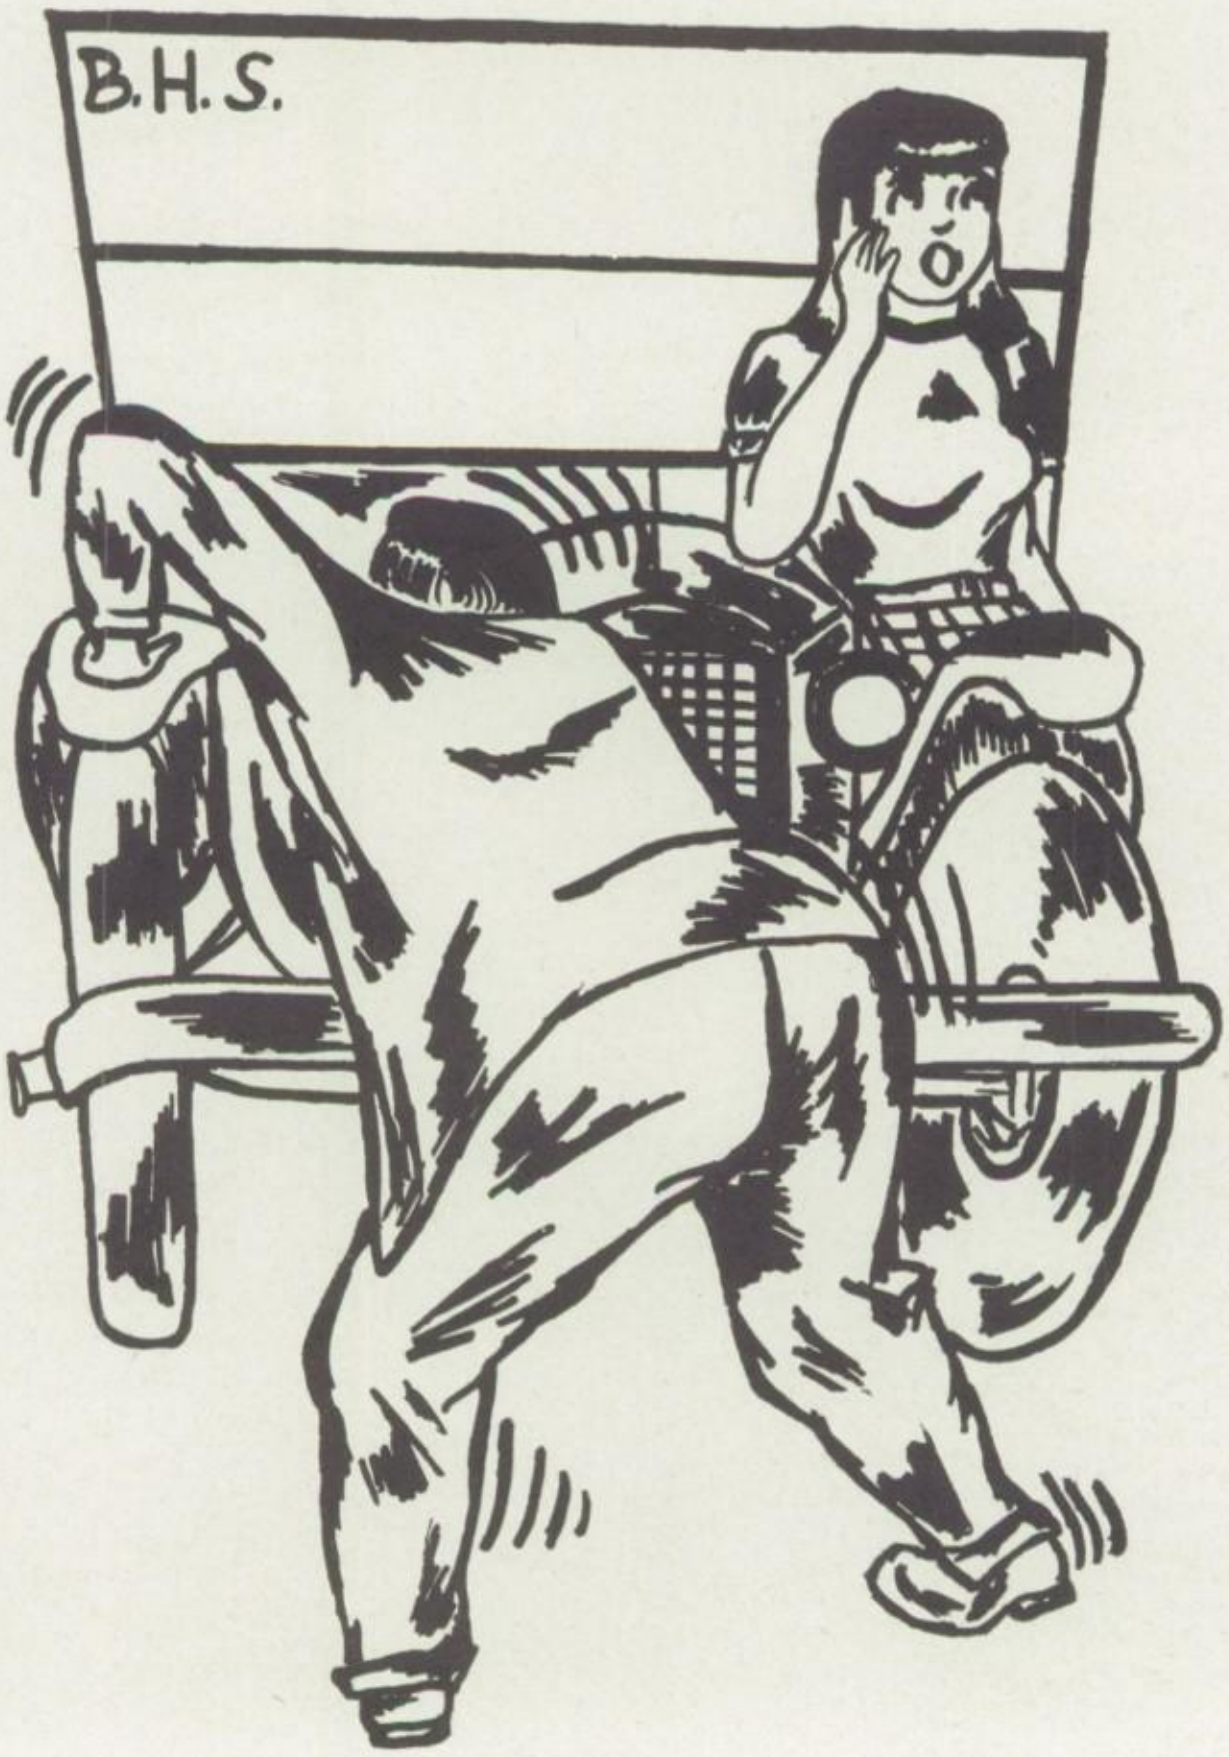
OH, THOSE FLAPPER DAYS

ONE, TWO, THREE, FOUR.

WHO MADE THAT LAST BASKET?

WE SEW A FINE SEAM.

March



March 11 We're district champs -

Just a week ago tonight there was great excitement as the fighting Bellevue Redmen under Coach Joe Ayers became sectional champions, as the result of winning three straight games in the Sandusky tourney. (See the pictures taken just after we received the trophy.)

Then tonight the Redmen brought home the runners-up trophy from the district tourney at Toledo, although they lost to Toledo Whitmer. Thus, this year's team advanced exactly as far as last year's team and proved once more that the Redmen are dynamite in tournament play.

All this pleased team and fans, since the regular season had resulted in only seven wins to eleven losses.

THE SEASON

Nov. 25: Bellevue, 33—Alumni, 40

Victims of a last quarter rally, the Bellevue boys ended on the short end of a 40-33 score. Sandy Nasonti scored the first point for Bellevue.

Dec. 2: Bellevue, 43—Bowling Green, 30

Getting off to a fast start, the Redmen outscored a lanky crew from Bowling Green by 13 points. Don Adams, junior forward, paced the attack with 14 markers.

Dec. 3: Bellevue, 28—Findlay, 46

The Ayersmen ran up against a stone wall when they encountered Findlay's tight defense. Don Adams, Sam DeBlase, and Ted Ball were the only cagers able to make two pointers in the tilt.

Dec. 9: Bellevue, 58—Upper Sandusky, 59

Despite a tremendous last quarter rally, the Bellevue boys lost a heartbreaker in their first league tilt. Don Adams, with 22 points, paced the scoring.

Dec. 16: Bellevue, 42—Willard, 43

Although they had been in the lead when only two seconds remained, the Ayersmen lost their second straight one-pointer when Bob Thorton tossed in a long shot.

Dec. 20: Bellevue, 43—Norwalk, 31

After a close first half, the Redmen steadily pulled away from the Norwalk club to win by a convincing 43-31 score. Sandy Nasonti and Don Adams sparked the quintet with 16 and 14 points.

Dec. 29: Bellevue, 42—Fremont, 37

By virtue of an overpowering second and third quarter, the Bellevue cagers, sparked by Sandy Nasonti, outplayed the Fremont Ross quintet, 42-37, in the first night of the Christmas basketball carnival.

Dec. 30: Bellevue, 33—Ashland, 39

In the finals of the Christmas Carnival, the Redmen were dumped by a high-flying quintet from Ashland, 39-33. Sandy Nasonti led the scoring with 13 points.

Jan. 6: Bellevue, 34—Port Clinton, 41

Art Long and Sandy Nasonti's 21 points were not sufficient to offset a well-balanced P. C. club, and the locals were handed their sixth defeat by the lake city boys.

Jan. 13: Bellevue, 37—Galion, 42

Unable to quell the Galion fourth quarter uprising, the Ayersmen lost another league contest, although Art Long, lanky center, tossed in 17 points.

Jan. 17: Bellevue, 34—Mansfield, 69

In their worst drubbing of the season, the Redmen lost to Vern Hoffman's fine five. Mansfield later went to the state quarterfinals before losing to Springfield, 1950 State champs. All-Ohio Ken McCally's 19 points were too much.

Jan. 20: Bellevue, 36—Shelby, 50

Art Long and Sam DeBlase tried valiantly, but Dick Utz, Shelby star, helped the Whippets steadily pull away from the Redmen until the score read, 50-36.

Jan. 27: Bellevue, 49—Bucyrus, 41

Victory at last! The Ayersmen surged from behind to capture an important NOL league victory from the, then, first-place Bucyrus cagers. Nasonti paced the attack with 14 points.

--tonight in Basketball

TOP ROW: Joe Serraino, Guy Beretich, Charles Siesel, Ralph Eisenhauer, Jim Windsor, Clem Koselke.
MIDDLE ROW: Jack Drexel, Ted Ball, Sam DeBlase, Sandy Nasonti, Glenn Hire, Louis Smith.

Jan. 31: Bellevue, 47—Fremont, 53

The underdog Fremont cagers pulled a surprising fourth quarter rally which stunned the over-confident Redmen to the tune of 53-47. Art Long and Dick Hickman kept the Redmen in the ball game.

Feb. 3: Bellevue, 56—Port Clinton, 59

Playing the Redskins to a standstill in three quarters, the Redmen might have turned the tables had they been able to hold the pace in the third canto. Bill Belshaw made the difference as he sank 24 important points.

Feb. 4: Bellevue, 49—Elyria, 47

For once the Redmen fought off a last quarter rally to defeat a rangy crew from Elyria. Nasonti led the attack with 16 points, followed by Adams with 11.

Feb. 10: Bellevue, 61—Crestline, 54

In their sixth win, the Redmen rang up a season high, as nine players entered the scoring column. Don Adams led the list with 16 counters, mostly accounted for by brilliant drive-in shots.

Feb. 14: Bellevue, 47—Sandusky, 61

With four players scoring in the double digits, the Sandusky Blue Streaks pulled away from a determined Bellevue five to win by 14 points. Art Long's eight fielders were high for the Ayers-coached squad.

Feb. 17: Bellevue, 77—Norwalk, 58

The Bellevue "Rockets" literally exploded on a hapless Norwalk five who could do nothing but watch the ball go through the hoop. Apparently Sandy Nasonti couldn't miss, for he rang up a season's high of 23 points in the last regular game of the season.

and --- here are the boys ---

THE TOURNAMENT

Feb. 28: Bellevue, 47—Tiffin Columbian, 38
The Bellevue Redmen sprang a surprise on favored Tiffin, as the BHS cagers played aggressive heads-up ball. Sam DeBlase sank 13 points in this important tilt.

March 2: Bellevue, 60—Port Clinton, 56
Sparked in a late rally by Ralph Eisenhauer, the sensational Bellevue hardcourt squad outfought a red-hot P.C. entry. Dick Hickman, ball handling specialist, came through with 13 important points.

March 4: Bellevue, 44—Willard, 40
"Redmen Upset Top-Seeded Willard." So the headlines read as the "Cinderella" team came through again. Adams, Nasonti, Long, DeBlase, Hickman, Eisenhauer, and Ball, all contributed as the unpredictable Redmen accomplished the "impossible," winning the Sectional Championship.

March 11: Bellevue, 43—Toledo Whitmer, 68
Unable to overcome a 27-point first-half deficit, the Bellevue entry rang down the curtain on the 1949-1950 season. Whitmer's first-half shooting percentage of 73% was too much to overcome. DeBlase and Eisenhauer sparked the Redmen with 10 each.

THE LETTERMEN

Nine players received major awards this year. Six were playing their last basketball game for B.H.S.

ART LONG—center,—"Captain" Art, the tallest man on the team, was noted for his control of the backboards and his left hand push shots. An "on" night for Art meant trouble for opponents.

TED BALL—forward,—Ted always turned in a praiseworthy job in the pinches, and his cool ball handling and accurate shooting helped the Redmen out of many a jam.

RALPH EISENHAUER — center, — "Ike" starred in the Sandusky tournament games, pulling two of them out of the fire. Although this was his first year of basketball, he came through with his tricky "hook" shot when he was needed.

DICK HICKMAN—guard,—"Hicky" also starred in the Sandusky tournament; but his tricky ball-handling and dribbling, together with his long shot, were threats throughout the entire season.

CLEM KOSELKE—guard,—"Old reliable" Clem, backed by experience, was always calm and cool when called on to play. He was at his best when the going got rough.

SANDY NASONTI — forward, — Sandy's sure-shooting and control of the backboard helped the Redmen win many a fray. His best game was against Norwalk when he chalked up 23 points.

These juniors turned in very creditable playing during the past season.

DON ADAMS—forward,—"Bo" was elected captain of the 1950-51 club and was named most valuable player for the 1949-50 season because of his consistent playing. His drive-in shots were beautiful to watch.

SAM DeBLASE—guard,—Sam's deceptive passing and tricky ball handling helped our boys considerably this year. Sam will be a mainstay in the attack next year.

JACK DREXEL—guard,—Jack didn't play too much this year, but was a sparkplug of the second team. He will be valuable next year.

GUY BERETICH — manager, — Guy took care of the balls and was always ready for other tasks. His accurate charts were a help to the coaches.

JOE SERRAINO—manager,—"Peno" was Coach Ayers' right hand man. He followed Coach's orders to a "T".

LEWIS SMITH—manager,—"Louie" took care of the towels and sometimes kept the shot chart.

The following boys received minor awards and will, in all probability, be on next year's roster.
Juniors—G. Hire, J. Tibboles, W. Todd.
Sophomores—T. Adams, P. Drewes, P. Miano, J. Moore, C. Siesel.
Freshman—J. Windsor.

One of Bellevue's most successful Reserve Teams on record closed its season, February 4, with a total of thirteen victories to six defeats. They outscored their opponents by an average of 32.5 to 28.5 points a game.

Freshmen

In spite of a record of two wins and twelve losses, the Freshman team, which was coached by Ed Allen, managed to reach the N. O. L. Freshmen—Junior High basketball tourney finals held at Willard. The Freshmen players were handicapped by lack of height, but when combined with the Junior High during the tourney, they showed the playing of which they are capable. They closed their season February 20, with the following record:

April 14 - The Prom "It was an old-fashioned garden"

1950 PROM —

AN OLD FASHIONED GARDEN

The colorful, old-fashioned garden in which we danced at the Junior-Senior Prom tonight could hardly be recognized as the B.H.S. gym. Blossoming boughs, a splashing fountain, garden furniture and white picket fences made couples feel as if they were actually dancing under the stars. Paul Mabie's fifteen piece orchestra supplied the music.

Master-of-ceremonies, Alton Frisch, introduced the Junior Sextet which sang "In An Old-Fashioned Garden." Nancy Mitchell set all the girls dreaming by playing "The Man I Love." Couples then joined in singing such old favorites as "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and "When You Wore a Tulip." Seniors concluded the program in traditional way by singing their class song.

1949 PROM — HEAVEN

Jerry and I have just been talking about last year's prom. Remember how couples danced in "Heaven" on the evening of April 29! Winged angels, golden harps, and soft music helped create the "Heaven" theme. After entering the Golden Gate, couples signed their names in "St. Peter's book." Ted Ball and Ruth Briehl added musical touches to the entertainment.

Highlight of the year for vocal music students was the Spring Music Festival presented tonight under the direction of Arch B. Krumm, vocal music instructor. The Prelude Choir, Mixed Choir, Boys' Chorus, and the Treble Clef all did their part to make the annual event a success. The Prelude Choir girls, dressed in their light formals, added a touch of spring in color as well as in song. Attractive maroon choir robes were worn by the Mixed Choir.

The Mixed Choir has sung in another festival this year, the N.O.L. Choral Festival at Upper Sandusky, last month.

The Treble Clef group, composed chiefly of freshmen girls, is a training ground for the other choruses.

The junior class boasts of a sextet that has sung for many audiences during this school year.

1949 SEASON

Although slightly undermanned, the 1949 Tracksters under the able guidance of Coach Kenny Sampson had a successful season and even produced a state champion in Milt Bruckner, who won the state half-mile in 1:59.6. Milt set a new school record of 1:59 for that distance against the tough competition at the Miami Relays.

Ted Fox broke the school record in the discus with a heave of 132' 7". The former record was 128' set by Robert Callaghan in 1939.

Year's Record
Bellevue	Opponents
73	Tiffin 45
40½	Bucyrus 58½ Ashland 50
51	Fremont 67
50	Galion 68
47	Port Clinton 70

Fremont Ross Relays, 23 points
League Meet, third place, 47 points
DeVilbiss Night Relays, 10 points
Newark Relays, 10 points
Miami Relays, 12 points
District Meet, 14 points
State Meet, 6 points

Major Awards went to the following seniors: Tom Beard, Milt Bruckner, Harry Coe, Ted Fox, Jim Lepley, and Harold Vogel.

Awards both Major and Minor were given to underclassmen Don Adams, Don Baldwin, Ted Ball, Sam DeBlase, Dick Hickman, Dick Keeler, and Carl Mira.

1950 SEASON

Because of the early date set for the Comet to go to press, not too much was known concerning the potential power of the 1950 track team, since no meets were held yet.

Dual meets will probably be scheduled with Norwalk, Tiffin, Ashland, Galion, Fremont, and Port Clinton. There is a possibility of a triangular meet between Bellevue, Bucyrus, and Ashland.

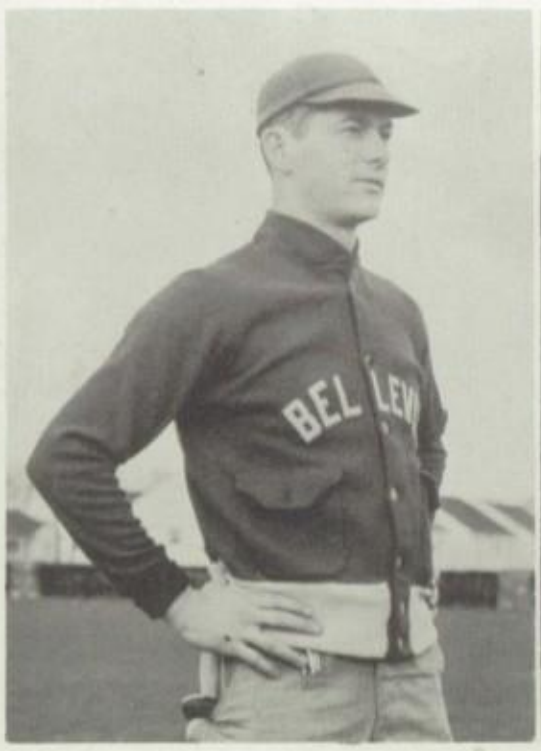
The 1950 thin-clads are scheduled to compete in most of the big relays in the state, including DeVilbiss, Miami, Newark, Fremont, and Mansfield. District and State meets will also be attended by the crack members of the squad.

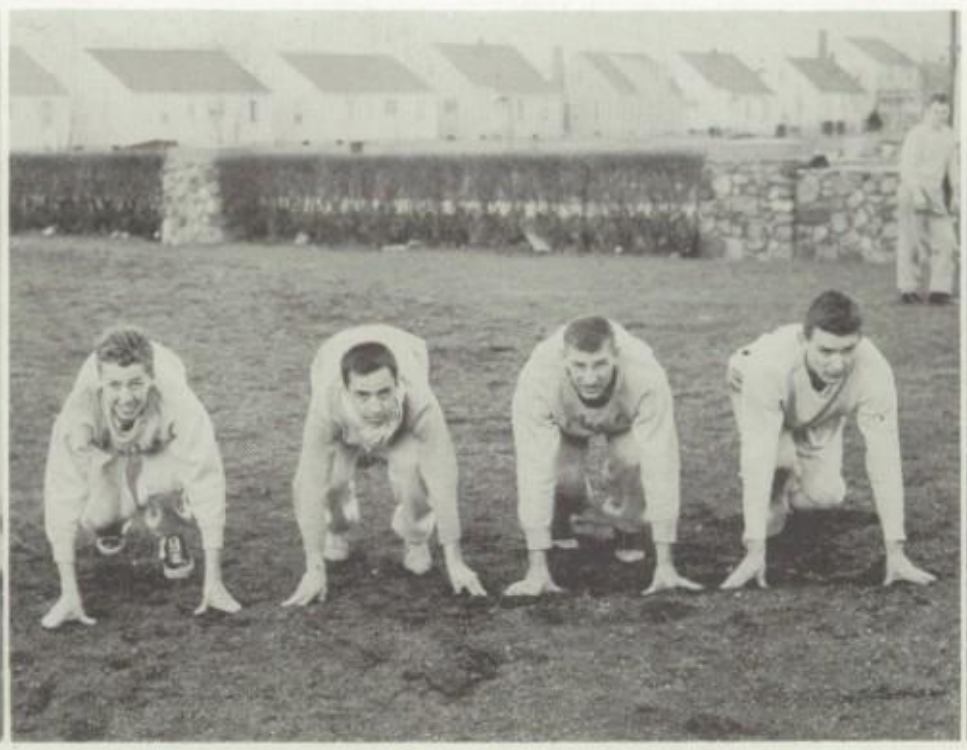
Coach Fenton Wolfe is at the helm of the Redmen tracksters and over thirty boys are out for the sport.

Coach Wolfe has six boys back from last year's team to form his nucleus. They are Don Adams (broad jump, mile relay, 220), Don Baldwin (880, high jump, mile relay), Dick Hickman (high and low hurdles), Ted Ball (high and low hurdles), Dick Keeler (shot put), and Sam DeBlase (high jump, 440).

Other promising prospects are Guy Beretich, Dennis Irons, Dave Dailey, Jim Windsor, Frank Belfiore, Tom Adams, Dick Ruffing, Chuck Siesel, and Chuck Wright.

Last month the first meet was canceled because of a strange freak of weather — a snowstorm in April! Even at the second meet, the boys wore heavy jackets between events as chill winds blew across the field.





The Senior Play May 12 tonight was "Ramshackle Inn"

Dear Diary:

Jerry and I were proud to work behind the scenes tonight when the seniors presented "Ramshackle Inn," a former Broadway play. It made a real hit, with the amusing old maid owner of the inn, the dead bodies, the muffled screams, and the humorous complications of plot.

May 19 ---nor Scholarship Recognition

We, Jerry and Jane, have worked hard to keep up the traditional high scholarship of B.H.S. Neither one of us became a "Down Champ", but we managed to get on several other coveted lists.

It was the new senior from California, Guy Beretich, who stole the honors and became both Vocabulary King, and Spelling Champ.

On the honor roll every period are Ted Ball, Betty Bauman, Willa Hogarth, Bob Raschke, Jack Weasner, Martha Woodard, Eileen Ball, Bob Holstein, Nancy Mitchell, Nancy Moore, Theresa Sberna, Pat Scagnetti, Barbara VonderEmbse, John Furlong, Elinor Harper, Joyce Kautzman, Frank Isaacs, Alice Erf, Pat Logan, Carol Underdown, Ila Warner, Sharon Wills, Marilyn Yoder, Jerry, and Jane.

State D.A.R. Tests were taken by Ann Crotcher, Willa Hogarth, Joann Richards, and Peggy Wilhelm, Jerry, and Jane, with Ann taking local top honors.

Twenty-four seniors were eligible to take the General Senior Scholarship Tests. Those whose names are starred earned a score above 180: *Guy Beretich, *Donald Drewes, *Jack Werner, *Joann Richards, *Bob Raschke, *Dick Hickman, *Ted Ball, *Joann White, Martha Woodard, Willa Hogarth, Peg Wilhelm, Sharon Brooks, Harold Colvin, Charles Wright, Barbara Bores, Ruth Briehl, Dick Gildenmeister, Lucia Brown, Jim Avery, Theresa DeLiberto, Betty Bauman, Jim Gallam, Joe Sherman, Phyllis Meyer, and — *Jerry and *Jane.

As a result of Preliminary Scholarship tests a number of students won places on the team picked to represent the school in the District State Scholarship tests held at Heidelberg College, May 6: Don Drewes, Jack Werner, Joann Richards, Joann White, Dick Hickman, Ted Ball, Barbara Bores, Phyllis Meyer, Ruth Ferres, Willa Hogarth, Jack Weasner, Barbara VonderEmbse, Shirley Mizer, Jim Tibboles, Eileen Ball, Bob Holstein, Nancy Moore, Nancy Mitchell, Theresa Sberna, Frank Isaacs, Paul Drewes, Ed Monarchi, Gary Adams, Gordon Sanders, Sylvia Leighton, John Furlong, Elinor Harper, Joyce Kautzman, Marilyn Yoder, Alice Erf, Eugene Wynbissinger, Sharon Wills, Robert Herner, Ila Warner, Barbara Swaebly, Carol Underdown,—and Jerry, and Jane.

Room 117 managed to hold on to the Scholarship Plaque for the first four periods; and when the Comet went to press, they were determined to keep it for the entire year. Close rivals for the honors were the other two senior rooms.

We sing our Class Song

SONG OF THE CLASS OF 1950

Music: Bells of St. Mary's
Words: Ted Ball, Dick Gildermeister

Verse:
Oh, we are the proud class of nineteen-fifty.
And we've come to bid you a happy farewell.
Our thoughts will be of you through all the long years
And to you we're grateful, much more than we tell.

Chorus:
Oh, blue and maroon are the colors we've chosen
To lead us to honor, and glory, and fame.
So let us go forward to build for the future.
Our class is small, but mighty is our name and aim.
Fond memories will linger of classes and parties
Of friends that we've made here and lessons learned too.
As we leave your portals, we'll strive for the world peace
To this the class of nineteen-fifty will be true.
